SKIP THE dramatics and high cost of cosmetic surgery and give POUT Bustier a try. "A truly uplifting experience," this bust-enhancer cream is made of wheat protein and firming agents, and has a little shimmer that gives the mirage of fuller, curvier cleavage ($42 at Sephora stores). —A.J.

It's all about being black and beautiful when you log on to cocoachic.com. An ultra feminine site dedicated to offering chocolate beauty junkies a wealth of information about makeup products, application and sources, it even offers beauty consultations, critiques and features a calendar of "chic" events. Log on for an instant pick-me-up! —LaConia Jenkins Dean

HOT AND BOTTLED

Soon after Vote or Die, Diddy started campaigning for a more glamorous cause: to "preserve the sexy." Well, it seems, the best way to do this was to bottle it up. Capturing all the flair and sexiness of the Sean John style, Diddy's new men's fragrance, Unforgivable, is a fresh combination of lavender, sage and other attractive ingredients. Available in two concentrations, Core ($55) and Couture ($300), Unforgivable is available exclusively at Saks Fifth Avenue stores. —Nina Hemphill

EVERY TRENDY honey has delighted in the benefits of a spa or two, so she knows the importance of flawless manicures. Elizabeth Arden must have had her in mind when she included effective ingredients, like natural pearl and UV absorbers, in the 76 hues of her spa-quality Red Door Nail Care Collection. Pick any lustrous color, for $8 a bottle, at elizabethhardennails.com, and you won't need to worry about chipping, streaking or fading for days.
